SOPHIE NÍ DHOMHNAILL

ILLUSTRATOR | STORYBOARD ARTIST

PROFILE

Having won my first art competition at 6 years old, I always had a vested interest in art in school and began animating at 12 years old. I wrote a comic and sold many copies at conventions for my company 'Bedoph' and now I am in college studying animation and Illustration. I always strive to make the finest work I can produce and meet all my deadlines. I am very sociable and get along well with people.
